We expect you will know that Warminster has resettled 3 Syrian families over the last year. Most of this has been done on a volunteer basis from Christian, Muslim and non faith backgrounds, with Council support. This party is to celebrate these families' arrival and initial settlement here. It is a chance for them to meet all those who have been involve and collectively have some fun. There is no charge for entry to the event itself. There will be food and Syrian food tasters. Also there will be various stalls from Henna and Candle Art to Cakes, Horse and Carriage rides and the whole Park to play in.

Sessions on the Eucharist: Thursday 14th June at 7.30pm in the Parish Hall. In anticipation of the Eucharistic Congress taking place in September all are welcome to attend the evening sessions so that we might pray together, ponder the word of God together, listen to our speakers reflect upon aspects of our understanding of the Eucharist, questions to provoke conversation, and a real sending out to live this mystery through the way we live our lives
