Year of Prayer Good News proclaimed to the poor, to the prisoner, to the blind, to the downcast, and to everyone, is obviously not well received. The Good News is not just for the few but for all who are open to receive it... even the outsider, the foreigner and the stranger. In our prayer we are invited to be open to that same Good News which our second reading calls us to consider as love – God's love given freely to us so that we might radiate that love to others in the way we live. We are appointed as 'prophets' and proclaimers of God's love, not simply within the security of our own parish communities, but to our world. We proclaim Good News through patience, forgiveness, compassion, gentleness, understanding, kindness and through being the love Paul reflects upon – that same love with which God loves us.

First Holy Communion 2018: The Sacrament will be conferred on Sunday 23rd June at the 10.00 Mass. Registration forms are available from the Sacristy.

Decoration of Church: Please be aware that the benches are not secured to the floor and do not provide the same firmness of support that they usually have. You may notice this especially as you raise yourself from a kneeling position.

Vacancy—Finance Support Administrator: An exciting opportunity has arisen in the Curial Finance Team!

The Diocese is currently rolling out a new online accounting system (OPAS) for all of its 107 parishes. Additional support is needed in the Finance team over the next twelve months to help train and support parishes with the new system, as well as general administrative support within the Finance team to allow other members of the team to work on this project. Full training on OPAS will be provided.

The role is a full-time, fixed term contract for twelve months, salary up to £22,000 depending on experience. Interviews will take place in late January/ early February. Ideally the successful applicant will be in post by the end of February.

The role is based at Alexander House, Bristol but there may occasionally be a need to travel to parishes throughout the Diocese. applications by Monday 28th January.
