Year of Prayer The great message of Pentecost which concludes our season of Easter, is rooted in fresh air and burning energy. That said, we would be mistaken if we find ourselves thinking that it is all about flames of fire suddenly appearing on the top of the disciples' heads. Pentecost, as our Gospel reminds us, is far more about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. As followers of the Lord we are expected to be a reconciling presence in the world. Wherever we encounter conflict we have a choice. We can walk away, or we can be an agent of peace and harmony. It is in our daily activities within our local community where we can be most effective in bringing peace to others. We may not be able to bring peace to the world, but we can bring peace to one another.
