Year of Communion When families are expecting the birth of a child there is great anticipation and the nearer the time comes, the greater the excitement. The birth of a child is always a sign and message of hope, a new life is coming, a new future. As we approach Christmas day, we remember that Christ came into our world as a vulnerable baby, bringing new life and new hope, God with us, Emmanuel. Christmas reminds us that God did not stay at a distance from us but entered into the depths of our world and our lives, coming to us in the human form of a tiny, vulnerable baby. In Jesus we have a God who so loves us so much that he wants to walk with us, sharing our very humanity in all its messiness. This Christmas as we remember the birth, let us also remember that Jesus comes to us again, each and every day, not as a baby but the one who loves us with an infinite love and a deep desire for our genuine and complete happiness, which lasts much longer than one day.
