Weekday Mass attendance varied from 3 to 16. We have the capacity to accommodate 25 households (a household could be one to seven persons) whilst maintaining 2 metre social distancing. However should attendance rise beyond 25 households we may have to introduce a booking/reservation system.

Year of Communion: Many of us have probably had those moments of dreaming that we have won the lottery or winning a big prize in some other set up. Such a prize could change our life. But is this really the pearl of great price that Jesus is speaking of? At the age of nine, a boy was asked this question during a story telling session. His thoughtful response to the question unnerved the facilitator who knew nothing about him. His reply? "My dad". A year earlier, his father, a farmer, unable to deal with losing all his cattle to foot and mouth disease, had taken his own life. The little boy's loss was devastating. He knew that no money or prize could ever replace his father. For him his dad was the pearl of great price and he would have given everything to have him back. This is a sad, but true story but it gives us the opportunity to truly reflect on where our own treasure lies. What is it that we would give up everything for? Jesus offers himself to us. His presence in our lives is the true treasure.

RIP: Mary d'Costa and Peter d'Costa, mother and brother of our parishioner, Agnes Rozario.

Please arrive before MASS commences: Many of the benches are not available for use so as to maintain social distancing. The volunteer stewards will direct you to your seat in Church. Please arrive before Mass commences so that last minute seating changes need not be made and to avoid disturbing the action of the Mass.. Remember that the stewards are attending Mass too. After Mass the stewards see to the cleaning of the benches.
