Year of Communion: Today we celebrate the Feast of All Saints, a feast that brings into focus all those who lead good and often holy lives but are not officially recognised by the Church as being 'Saints'. The church introduced this feast in order to recognise the early Christian martyrs, many of whom were never known by name but who lived faithful Christian lives and who died for their faith. We may not have known anyone who has died for their faith but most of us have met people who have devoted their life to living the values of the Gospel. They are the people who strive to live generously and compassionately. These people are not heroic in the normal sense of the word, but their lives often are heroic. They are the people who are ready go the extra mile for others and then slip away un-noticed. When we think of holiness what do we imagine? Perhaps one definition of holiness is the capacity to live without hankering after the past or imagining the future but being able to focus on the present moment. Such people are attentive to what is going on around them and in doing so can respond to whatever is asked of them. During the pandemic we have seen many such people, heroically giving endlessly to meet the needs of others. These are the blessed people. Today's Gospel invites each one of us live humble, peaceful, and wholesome (holy) lives with Christ at the heart of all our actions and words.

Ventilation in our churches: Ventilation is important in minimising the transmission of COVID and therefore doors and some windows need to be open to provide a through-draft during Mass. Please wear warm clothes when you come to church.

November—Month of the Holy Souls: Some people like to have a Mass offered for parents, family or friends who have died. This is a special way of remembering them. Mass listing on the Narthex Notice Board with Gift Aid envelopes for the Offering.

Missio Red Boxes The boxes may now be returned for processing.

PRIESTS' RETIREMENT FUND - ANNUAL APPEAL: 31 Oct – 1 Nov 2020

The Annual Appeal, in support of the Priest's Retirement Fund, will take place during the weekend of 31 Oct – 1 Nov 2020.

During their years of service to parish congregations many priests did not have the opportunity to prepare adequately for retirement. The support received for this appeal each year is a great reassurance to them that they are not forgotten.

There are currently twenty retired priests in receipt of financial support, which includes funding for retirement properties, retirement grants and care home fees, amounting to over £250,000 per annum.

Your support for this important collection is much appreciated by our retired priests, who continue to give great help in many parishes by offering their services as supply priests.

To enhance the appeal, Gift Aid envelopes will be available allowing an additional 25p to be claimed for every £1 donated.

Second Collection: This Sunday for the Priests' Retirement Fund
